THE CROWDED HOUR

The office manager scratched his head in bewilderment.
"I can't figure this out," he mused.
"All the men want the last two weeks of June for their vacation."

Plenty Would Hoot Here

In some places in Arkansas, it is said, a man may go at night and hoot like an owl, and within an hour a quart of moonshine will be left at the place where he hooted. But how would a man from Missouri, say, whose hooter was perfectly dry, emit the first and most necessary hoot?—Hopkins Journal.

During 1919 there were 7,969 deaths caused by automobile accidents.
